'The National Cemetery at Gettysburg will ever be a place of resort, both on account of its heauty and the interest which surrounds the spot. There is the seeping sales of more than three thousand brave men who fought and died for their country.

The hurge hotel secretly erected near the celebrated spring of 'Katalysine' water, is now an object of attraction and is visited by hundreds. The water of the spring still holds its celebrity. It is carried away in large quantities, and is partaken of in the belief that it will quinkly core the sick, heal the lame, and strengthen the weak; and from the accounts given by those who have partaken of the water as a medicine, it certainly has a merit beyond that contained in common spring or well water. A railroad has just been completed from the depot to the spring, and streat cars now convey pas-'peace and quiet," Our people want-Fine Band .- With the Worth Infantry, of York, came to the Dedjention the Citizens' Band, of that place, with the veteran leader, Capt. been completed from the depot to the spring, and street cars now convey passengers out to the spring and back again, safely and pleasantly. On both sides of the truck, there is a course for driving with private conveyances, giving additional pleasare to the place. Clettysburg is improving rapidly. Many new houses have been creeted since the battle, and old once have been made to look like new ones. The removal of the Bair Grounds from Spring and Floiel, the Batthe-field and Mounnent, all tend to make this town Mounnent, all tend to make this town and ranked in history through all time to come.
